MEET THE NEW PRESIDENT AND CEO OF JOSLIN DIABETES CENTER

JOHN L. BROOKS III
Mr. Brooks is President and Chief Executive Officer of Joslin Diabetes Center.

A well-known life sciences executive, Mr. Brooks assumed the President and CEO responsibilities in March 2011, leaving the role of Chairman of the Joslin Board of Trustees that he had assumed the previous year.

Previously, Mr. Brooks co-founded three life sciences companies including Insulet, which offers an insulin-pump system for people with type 1 diabetes. He was a principal of Healthcare Capital Consulting LLC, which advises early-stage life sciences companies, and a founder of Prism VentureWorks, which raised more than $1.25 billion in capital. He also has been chief executive of Reflectance Medical, which offers technology for non-invasive monitoring of critically ill patients.

Earlier in his career, Mr. Brooks was General Manager at Pfizer/Valleylab, where he developed and executed a minimally invasive surgery strategy. With Pfizer/Strato, he led the growth of a rapidly evolving vascular access medical device business.

A native of Massachusetts, Mr. Brooks holds an M.S. in Business and a B.B.A. cum laude from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.
